We'll be making a stop at the Historical Yuma Territorial Prison so some of you can reminisce about the good 'ole days and maybe see some of your relatives (a small entry fee applies)!! If you're lucky enough to escape that prison visit, you could partake in some shopping at Yuma HD...then later, enjoy a cell block dinner with the group. I'm sure we can muster up some sort of menu for a bunch of outlaws.

Are you ready to go?
